The following are the terms and conditions for nomination for election to the EAGC Country Director for Eastern Africa Grain Council for the period 2021/2023

1. The candidates (nominee) name must be clearly indicated, and the nominee has to be a member of EAGC or employee of good standing in the member organization.

2. To be eligible, the candidate must be the officially appointed representative in writing for the institutional member.

3. The nominee/candidate must accept the nomination for it to be valid.

4. The nominating party must be a voting member.

5. The nominee should be present at the election, either in person or by documented proxy giving reasons for absence.

6. The nominee’s member organization must be a paid-up member as at and including the year 2021.

7. A nominee who fails to be elected for country directorship is eligible to stand in the subsequent election for sector directorship. Nominees wishing to do this should indicate in both Sector Director and Country Director Columns on the Nomination form.

8. All nominations must be received by the EAGC Secretariat by C.O.B. on 10th May 2021 through the email grains@eagc.org copied to gmasila@eagc.org.

9. The Secretariat will compile a list of all nominations and circulate the same to members for reference.

10. The election for Director to represent the Country will take place during the Country Members Meeting at the Country level, while the Sector Director elections will be conducted by the Sector Members (Farmers, Traders and Processors) at the Annual General Meeting.
