

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: IRRIGATION EXTENSION ARTISANS TRAINING PROGRAM

The Eastern Africa Grain Council (EAGC), Grundfos (Denmark), Akvo International (Uganda), Access to Innovation (Denmark) with support from the Denmark Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA) under the DANIDA Green Business Partnership Programme (DGBP) are implementing a project “Enhancing irrigation to improve climate adaptation and sustain smallholder production systems in Uganda”. This initiative aims to reduce climate vulnerabilities and increase sustainability of smallholder food production systems to improve livelihoods of smallholder farmers by enhancing availability and adoption of smart irrigation solutions and climate adaptation practices within an inclusive ecosystem of private sector driven services.

We are seeking applicants for a training program for irrigation extension artisans, who will support farmers in irrigation agronomy, water management and climate change adaptation.

Training Contents

Selected persons will undergo 5 days of training that will include both theory and practical's session and a 3-month attachment program to an irrigation scheme. The key areas to be covered include; Irrigation, system operation and maintenance, solar water pumping, water use efficiency and Entrepreneurship.

Eligibility criteria

The candidate is expected to:

- Should have attained at least UCE or its equivalent.
- Good communication and presentation skills.
- Experience in undertaking similar activities is will be and added advantage required.

Program Benefits

- Practical, hands-on training in irrigation systems
- Knowledge in Irrigation, water management, Equipment maintenance.
- Opportunities to work within their communities to improve agricultural practices
- Certification upon successful completion of the program

How to Apply

Interested candidates should submit their CV with a valid telephone contacts, cover letter and relevant certifications via the Call for Applications: Irrigation extension artisans training program online form by Close of Business 12th December 2024. We are committed to inclusivity and encourage applications from all, including women and marginalized groups.

Click here to apply

